

United Educators Member Permission Policy

Permission to use or reproduce United Educators resources and publications is granted to members of United Educators in good standing under the conditions described below.

Permission Is Granted for United Educators' Members' Use Only

All rights reserved. Members are permitted to print or download any resource from the United Educators website for use within their institution only, provided that:

- Resources are not accessible to nonmembers. For example, as set forth below, materials must be posted in areas of the institution's website that are password-protected and not available to the general public.
- All copyright, trademark, and other notices contained in United Educators' materials appear on your copy.
- You agree to abide by all additional copyright notices and restrictions contained in any information accessed through www.ue.org.
- No modifications are made to any information obtained from United Educators without prior written permission from United Educators.
- No duplication or replication of CDs or DVDs is permitted.

Permission to Post United Educators Materials to Member Websites

We grant permission to post United Educators materials to a member website provided the following conditions are met:

1. The location of the document on the institution's website is password-protected and not available to the general public.
2. The document is not altered in any way. We will require you to post the document in its entirety and not in excerpts. If you wish to post an excerpt, please send us an explanation and your proposed excerpt. Submit your request to jwiseman@ue.org.
3. Copyright and contact notices are included. At the location of your posting, include "Copyright © (year) United Educators. Used by permission," as well as a hyperlink to the United Educators website (www.ue.org).
4. United Educators is notified when the document is posted. Once you have posted the document, send an email to jwiseman@ue.org with a link to your posting.
